

Nomination Form
Provost's Leadership Award for Partnership in Philanthropy

Deadline for Submissions is June 19, 2009

The purpose of the Provost's Leadership Award for Partnership in Philanthropy is to recognize a current or former faculty member's superior achievement in fundraising. The awardee should demonstrate an ability to garner external support, leverage such support to advance the mission of Cal Poly and work collaboratively with the University's traditional fundraising staff.

The award recipient will be selected by the Office of the Provost and recognized at Fall Conference.

Faculty, staff, and current students are eligible to nominate faculty for this award.

The nomination must include:

1. This cover sheet.
2. A letter nominating the individual. The letter should describe the nominee's efforts to leverage support; advance the mission of Cal Poly and work effectively with donors, alumni and the fund raising staff at Cal Poly. The letter may also include any special activities that relate to fundraising.
